Commercial Telephone Solicitation Act

Section 775A.1 - Legislature Finds, Determines and Declares.

The Legislature hereby finds, determines and declares that the use of telephones for commercial solicitation is rapidly increasing; that this form of communication offers unique benefits, but entails special risks and poses the potential for abuse; that the Legislature finds that the widespread practice of fraudulent and deceptive commercial telephone solicitation has caused substantial financial losses to thousands of consumers and, particularly, elderly, homebound and otherwise vulnerable consumers, and is a matter vitally affecting the public interest; and, therefore, that the general welfare of the public and the protection of the integrity of the telemarketing industry requires statutory regulation of the commercial use of telephones.

1. Conducts business as a commercial telephone seller without having registered with the Attorney General, as required by Section 775A.3 of this title;

2. Fails to allow the purchaser in any telephone sales transaction to cancel any purchase or agreement to purchase goods, services or property at any time before the expiration of three (3) business days after the purchaser's receipt of such goods, services or property by delivering or mailing to the commercial telephone seller written notice of cancellation. 9. Engages in any deceptive trade practice defined in Section 752 of this title.

B. Paragraphs 2 and 4 of subsection A of this section do not apply to a transaction in which the consumer obtains a full refund for the return of undamaged or unused goods or a cancellation of services by giving notice to the seller within seven (7) days after receipt by the consumer and the seller processes the refund or cancellation within thirty (30) days after receipt of the returned merchandise or the consumer's request for refund for services not performed or a pro rata refund for any services not yet performed for the consumer. The availability and terms of the return and refund privilege shall be disclosed to the consumer orally by telephone and in writing with any advertising or promotional material or with the delivery of the product or service. If a seller offers consumers an unconditional guarantee, a clear disclosure of such guarantee by using the words "satisfaction guaranteed", "free inspection" or "no-risk guarantee" satisfy the disclosure requirements of this subsection.
